FINANCIAL STATEMENT THE TRAIL BLAZER

INCOME	$2782.00
EXPENDITURES	2393.57
NET PROFIT	$ 388.43

The Budget Committee requested the Trail Blazer to show a profit of $400 for the year. This was almost accomplished with twelve newsy, readable, and informative issues. Ninety-five per cent of the success of this year's Trail Blazer has to be credited to the editor, Alicia Coffey.

Respectfully submitted,
 Burton Thomas,
 Business Manager.

FROM THE EDITOR

My sincere thanks to the Trail Blazer staff and reporters for their fine, prompt work. For kindly advice and cooperation, my thanks to Mr. Jaques and the staff of West Coast Printing Company. For his many kindnesses in making my job easier, my most sincere appreciation to our efficient Manager, Burton Thomas.

CUSTODIAN OF PROPERTIES

Having had the honor of serving the M.H.A. as Custodian of Properties (a department inaugurated this year for the purpose of locating and consolidating all the M.H.A. properties in one locale and under the responsibility of one person) I wish to thank all the members of the Board, especially our President, Ralph Coffey, Alicia Coffey and all others who assisted me in locating and assembling the various items. I have in my possession all the properties known to belong to the M.H.A. with the exception of such items as are renewed yearly for the horse show.

With best holiday wishes, I am,
 Joe Stern,
 Custodian of Properties.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Custom decrees that the President deliver a message to the members at the close of his term—in truth this message is on behalf of the entire Board. Without exception the Board Members who were selected to act this year gave unstintingly of their abilities and time.

A Finance Committee of 3 members was inaugurated this year, their duty to review each activity, budget the expenditures of each and zealously follow up during the year. They recommended that first consideration be given to trail work in all its phases — planning, acquiring, developing and maintaining, all other functions of the association to be secondary to this purpose.

Our association started its current year with approximately $1000 and ends the year with a like amount for the new board.

Particular credit must be given the Trail Blazer which has enjoyed a financial success this year — our thanks to the manager and his staff and the advertisers who have made this possible. When you need things be sure to patronize our advertisers.

The members and organizations who planned and carried out the horse show this year deserve special thanks. They gave M.H.A. a real show.

The Trails Committee was able to keep close contact with the Oakland Park Board and the Regional Parks and have accomplished a very great deal for the horsemen as you will note by their report.

No message would be complete without the hope that this association will continue its good work, that no cliques or factions develop within it to handicap its potential powers and that it will go forward toward a larger, stronger organization.

To the new Board and the entire membership, Good Luck and a Merry Xmas.

Ralph Coffey,
 President.

Personals

"Lions in the hills" reports Johnny Munson who jumped one on Cerros Estrallados Ranch. They must have missed one . . . or two when the big hunt was staged 10 years ago.

MARRIED in Columbus, Michigan, on October 3, our popular bachelor Gil Ashcom and Mrs. Carmel Flood Gidney. Best wishes to both of you.

A GALA DAY for the Boots and Jeans who joined the Mountain Valley Riders of Daly City on a ride around Lake Merced, through Golden Gate Park and along the beach, but some of the hill horses didn't care for the waves.

JUNIOR HONORED: Johnny Hook and his fine horse Jigaboo took first in Western Equitation (12 and under) at Stockton; Fourth at the Cow Palace in Stock Saddle Seat. Congrats, Johnny.

THE CALL TO ARMS has been accepted by Terry Tierney of Highland Stables. Best of luck, Terry.

LADIES, ATTENTION! A Wednesday morning group of lady riders has been organized by Mrs. J. A. Kennedy of Robinson Drive. The first ride was held over the Sunset Trail to the arena, and back to Skyline Ranch for lunch. Enjoying a combination of sun and fog were "Dutch" Cummings, Mrs. Hollenbeck, Cynthia Nordquist, Helen Denner and Martha Kennedy. Bonny Hooper arriving late, staged a one-woman hunt for the group without success. She did arrive in time for lunch.

Any ladies interested in joining the group may call Martha Kennedy at KE. 3-7556.

ATTENTION ROBINSON DRIVE HORSEMEN: Why not get together on a work day and fix up the right-of-way with a nice horse trail?

SINCERE APPRECIATION AND THANKS are expressed by Ted Talstrom and Margaret Rukavina for the many kindnesses of horsemen during the recent illness and death of Peg Talstrom.

A recent dinner at the clubhouse honored Past Captain Floyd Jacobs for his services to the Rangers and special appreciation to Captain Emeritus Fred Bemis for his help at Stockton was expressed.

Condolences to Eula Boger, Mrs. Nelson Lewis, Mrs. Floyd Jacobs, Fayle Crane—all on the sick list.

ALAMEDA COUNTY SHERIFF'S MOUNTED POSSE. The activities of the Posse during 1951 under the leadership of Capt. J. M. The parade season opened on St. Patrick's Day in San Francisco and closed on Armistice Day in Oakland. The Drill team executed their precision drill in Reno, the County Fair at Pleasanton, the State Fair in Sacramento and the Mills College Horse Show. So ends a pleasant and busy year and so—a rest and a well earned holiday for the Posse members.

MILLS COLLEGE SHOW BIG SUCCESS

In keeping with a beautiful day, many fine entries and the attractively decorated show grounds was a general feeling of goodwill and gaiety at the 20th Annual Mills College Horse Show on Sunday, October 21.

As manager-director I want to thank all who supported our show: the officials and committee members, trophy donors, box holders and exhibitors. Special praise should be given these ingenious exhibitors . . . hundreds of outside horses attend a show such as mine with only fresh air accommodations, obscure horses here and there, are prompt to classes with horse and rider correctly appointed; and then fade away into the surroundings awaiting the next class.

Captain J. P. Cribbins in a recent letter says: "There was no doubt in my mind that the audience had a good time; rather a better time than at any horse show I have seen or judged in quite a long while. From the remarks of the exhibitors encountered during the closing stages I would believe that they too felt that the show was an unqualified success. The whole performance had the air of an extremely well prepared and thought-out program and the reaction was the reward of a finely planned and executed Horse Show. The lack of this is the downfall of so many shows. The crowd was put in tune early in the show and I think Lonnie McNally deserves a great deal of credit for that, and from that point on they were attentive, pleased, and obviously had loads of fun."

We compliment Dan O'Neill, western judge, for setting aside the conventional ring obstacles and instituting the practical test on hillside terrain. Compliments for excellent judging to Captain Cribbins, Mr. Harry Smith, and Dr. Omar Foda.

My thanks to Joe Stern and Bill Senecal for installing hundreds of feet of hemp cable, to Larry Domina and Louis Barrios for long hours at the gate, to Paddock Clerk Jerry Hansen. Contributing to the day's enjoyment were Shongehon Mothers serving 221 lunches, the entertaining "Excuse My Dust" act initiated by Mr. E. A. Hagstrom who personally brought 3 vehicles, Mr. F. W. Crash's Belles of '90, the fast drill and help of the Alameda County Sheriff's Posse, the inspiring drill of Shongehon led by Jackie Pickler and Linell Powers.

We plan to resume the Mills College Show as an annual event in the fall and trust the same date will be available. At this point, we assure exhibitors of a corrected and improved entrance to the grounds and apologize for the present unsightly gate.

Cornelia Cress,
Manager-Director

ATTENTION—DRILL TEAMS

Miss Cress proposes an equestrian meeting of all drill teams at which drills will be given in exhibition, not in competition, and for friendly association of the members.

Please send response and suggestions to Miss Cress, at Cressmount, Mills College.
